

bp's contribution to London in 2025

Analysis and modelling by Oxford Economics

Economic contribution bp supported a contribution of around £3.1 billion gross value added (GVA) to the economy of London. This was approximately £1 in every £190.

Overall spend with suppliers bp spent £1.6 billion with suppliers in London in 2025, £1.3 billion of which was operational spending and £330 million was capital expenditure.*

2025 saw spending across a variety of sectors, with the largest recipients being £620 million with professional services and £380 million being with information and communication services.

Supporting jobs

bp supports an estimated 17,000 jobs across London, comprising its direct workforce and jobs indirectly supported through supply chain expenditure.

Delivering quality services

There were 221 bp-operated and dealer-operated retail sites in London offering quality fuels and convenience. 208 sites offered bp pulse ultra-fast and rapid EV charging.

Spotlight on social investment

Since 2022, bp has provided funding, strategic input and employee volunteering to The Felix Project in London, which rescues surplus food and redistributes it to organizations supporting people experiencing food insecurity across the capital. In 2025, bp became a founding supporter of the charity's new South London depot, which includes The Felix Food Factory, enabling surplus food to be repurposed and delivered to communities for longer-lasting impact.

£1.6 billion

spent with suppliers in London

~£3.1bn

contribution to GVA
in the London

~17,000

jobs supported,
directly and indirectly through the supply chain

*Figures may not sum due to rounding

Sources: bp and Oxford Economics